GETTING AROUND PS EMMYLOU

Emmylou has two passenger decks. The main Deck is accessible by wheelchair however help will be required to traverse the crank shaft. The Upper Deck is not accessible by wheelchair and requires passengers to climb a staircase of 14 steps which are quite upright. We recommend that you reverse down facing the steps when coming down the staircase. Please ask our crew for assistance if required

PASSENGER CABINS

Passenger cabins are located on the Main & Upper Decks. There are 8 cabins in total all with Private Ensuite. The Main Deck cabin is the most suitable for passengers with limited mobility.

GETTING ASHORE

During the course of the cruise Emmylou stops at a number of riverside locations where passengers can go ashore via the gangway. The steepness of the gangway will vary depending on the location (varying from steep riverbanks to flat historic wharves). The crew are always on hand to assist passengers ashore. The terrain will also vary depending on river conditions. Rough ground, inclines and sand may provide obstacles to those with limited mobility. Wheelchair access for onshore tours may not be possible

SWIMMING & FISHING

If you wish to swim or Fish in the river, please seek advice from one of our crew as to the easiest and safest method of doing so. Swimming in the river is at your own risk and is not supervised by the crew.
